Recipe of the Month:

Irish Champ

- 2 pounds potatoes, peeled and halved
- 1 cup milk
- 1 bunch green onions, thinly sliced
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 cup butter
- 1 pinch ground black pepper

1. Place potatoes in large pot, fill with water and cook until tender (about 20 minutes).
2. Drain, return to low heat and allow potatoes to dry out. Tip: place clean dish towel over potatoes to absorb moisture.
3. Heat milk and green onions gently in saucepan.
4. Mash the potatoes, salt, and butter until smooth. Stir in milk and green onion until evenly mixed. Season with black pepper.

Quotable

“You gotta try your luck at least once a day, because you could be going around lucky all day and not even know it.”

-Jimmy Dean

Jokeable

Why do people wear shamrocks on Saint Patrick's Day?

Regular rocks are too heavy.

St. Patrick's Day Fun Facts!

1. St. Patrick's color was “St. Patrick's Blue” but we began celebrating with green when the day was linked to the Irish independence movement.
2. Every year we spend about $245 billion dollars on beer on St. Patrick's Day.
3. According to traditional Irish folklore, there are no female leprechauns.
4. St. Patrick's birth name was Maewyn Succat, but changed it to Patricius after becoming a priest.
